TO WOMEN WORKERS

Are you working for money?

Are you holding a job you do not need?

Perhaps you have a husband who is well able to support you and a comfortable home?

You took a job during the war to help meet the shortage of labour.

You have "made good" and want to continue working.

But the war is over and conditions have changed.

There is no longer a shortage of labour. On the contrary, Ontario is faced by a serious situation due to the number of men unemployed.

This number is being increased daily by returning soldiers.

They must have work. The pains and dangers they have endured in our defence give them the right to expect it.

Do you feel justified in holding a job which could be filled by a man who has not only himself to support, but a wife and family as well?

THINK IT OVER
