

JOURNAL WRITING RUBRIC

Criteria	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Level 4
Demonstrates understanding of a variety of dramatic forms	Demonstrates limited understanding of dramatic forms	Demonstrates some understanding of dramatic forms and meaning	Demonstrates a good understanding of dramatic forms and meaning	Demonstrates a thorough understanding of dramatic forms and layers of meaning in the drama
Demonstrates understanding of the meaning in the drama work	Demonstrates limited understanding of the meaning in the drama work	Demonstrates some understanding of the meaning in the drama work	Demonstrates a good understanding of the meaning in the drama work	Demonstrates a thorough understanding of the meaning in the drama work
Makes connections between elements in the drama work	Makes limited connections between elements in the drama work	Makes some connections between elements in the drama work	Makes good connections between elements in the drama work	Makes consistent connections between elements in the drama work
Makes connections between the drama work and the world beyond the fictional context	Makes limited connections between the drama work and the world beyond the fictional context	Makes some connections between elements in the drama work and the world beyond the fictional context	Makes good connections between elements in the drama work and the world beyond the fictional context	Makes thorough connections between elements in the drama work and the world beyond the fictional context

NOTES: