

Role / Character

How can you maintain focus while in role?
What gestures or facial expressions can you use to communicate your character?

