

Writing in Role RAFT

Use the chart below to decide upon the following:

Who are you pretending to be in this writing in role activity?

Who are you writing to?

What form will your writing take?

What is the topic and purpose for your writing?

Role	Audience	Format	Topic
KC	Peers at School	Editorial for the school newspaper	Point of view for about the new development
RJ	People who read the newspaper	flyer	Looking for work
NP's former coach In Toronto	NP	e-mail	Advice on how to improve swimming technique
LB	David Suzuki	e-mail	Getting support to fight this construction plan
Squirrel (or other animal)	Self	Diary	What this possible construction will do to him/her
New business owner (planning to put a café in the new community centre)	Community	Newspaper ad	Trying to get support for the new business
LB	Mayor of Habitown	Complaint Letter	How the city is destroying one of it's natural parks and the effects on the natural habitat
Advertiser	TV Audience	Public service announcement	Importance of natural habitats
Advertiser	TV Audience	Public service announcement	Importance on new businesses in our community
KC	Self	Diary	What that space means to him/her and what will happen if it's taken away

Once you have selected from each column, find a quiet corner to complete this writing in role task.