

Elements of Tableau Anchor Chart

A tableau is a frozen picture or still image that can tell a story, or communicate an emotion, an idea, or a message.

Use the following elements to create interest and to make your message clear:

BODY	body shapes (e.g. open/closed, big, small, balanced, off balance); facial expression; tension in the body
LEVELS	vary the levels- high, medium, and low
RELATIONSHIP	physical positioning in relation to each other (e.g. close, distance between, eye contact, reaching toward, turning away)
FOCAL POINT	focus of tableau. Where should the audience be drawn to focus their attention?
