

Text Analysis

What is this text about? How do we know?

What do we know about the narrator of the text? How do we know this?

What do the words suggest?

What do we need to know to understand this?

What different interpretations of the text are possible?

How have we interpreted the text in different ways?

How does the order of the words affect the meaning/tone/feeling?

*These questions will be re-addressed later in the lesson, and responses shared with the whole class