

Inquiry Reflection

What is something that might make someone feel unwelcome in your class?

What is one way that you might make the classroom more welcoming to your peers?

What is something that makes a tableau effective? Use an example from a tableau that you saw a group share to support your thinking.

Were you a good group member during our work in this unit? What might you focus on moving forward? Use examples from your work to support your answer.

