

I quit! As if it's not hard enough to find friends and fit in, I have to keep this little secret. With Spring recital coming up there are practices 3 times a week. I can't do anything else. People think I am lying when I say that I can't hang with them. It would be worse if they knew the truth though. I can just imagine what Martin would say. He just wouldn't get it.

The Assignment:

What did you do over the weekend?

Make sure to be specific and add a lot of details!

Not much happened this weekend. I took my dog for a walk. His name is Stan. I would have taken him to the park, but people there make fun of me. I never know what to say to them. Nothing else happened.

(Note to teacher: Print off the assignment and write an "F" across it in red marker.)

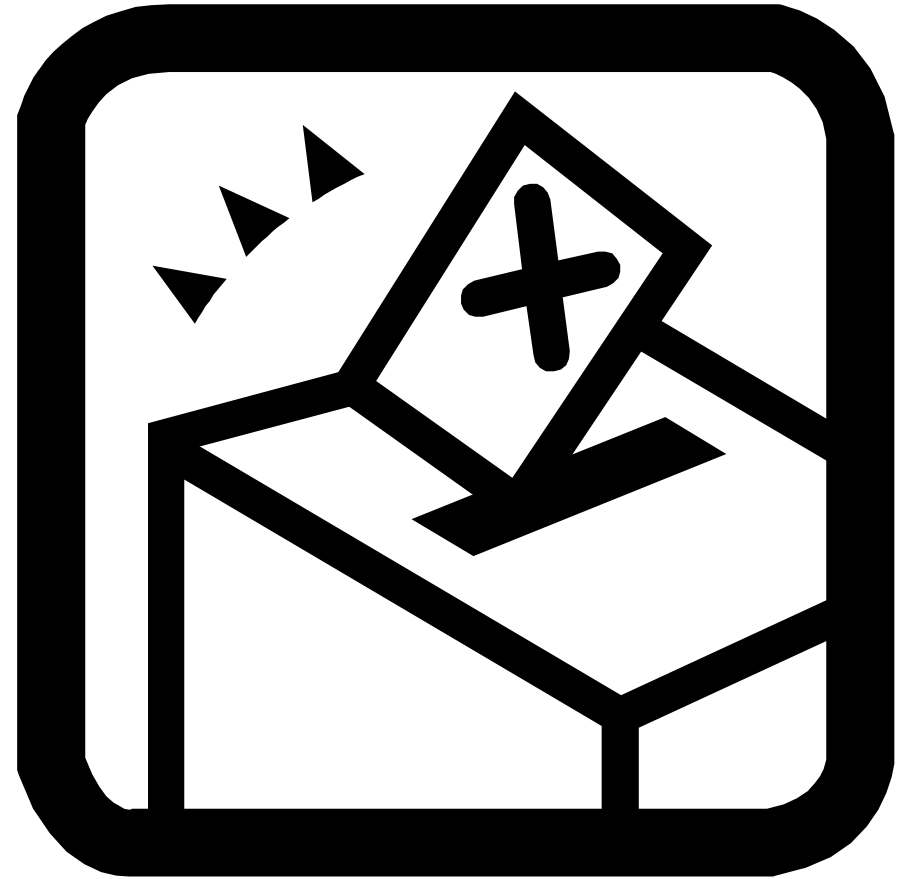

(Note to teachers: This is the one of the artefacts to be used in “Hotseating the Object”, found in the boy’s backpack.)

Vote for me as Class Prime Minister

Note to teacher: Print off sign. Write something unpleasant across it in student script. Eg., "Loser", "You'll never win", "Who would want you in charge?", "Is this a joke?"

Note to teacher: Print off and cut out two tickets (you may want to print it on a different colour paper). Then rip the ticket in two and crumple it a bit.
