

Look at your assigned piece of artwork and take in as much as you can about what you see.

Think about these questions:

- What do you see?
- What do you think it's about?
- What questions do you have about the piece?

Write a letter that you're never going to send non-stop for five minutes.

Use one of these prompts:

- Write a letter to something in the painting.
- Write a letter to an idea that pops into your head when you look at the painting.
- Write a letter to a lesson or theme you get from the painting.

OR, use a painting specific prompt:

Choice #1 Dear: Anger... Leading woman... Protesting man... Those gathered together... The feather...	Choice #2 - A group of six different paintings focusing on MMIWG Dear: The artist (pick one) The faceless... Those who are missing... An emotion...
Choice #3 Dear: Mother Earth... Grandmother Moon... The Sun... The Bear... The Woman... Jessica Somers (the artist)	Choice #4 Dear: The girl... The forest... The tree... The concept of growth... Connections...
